So far X-Men is still a massive no go as it is licensed to FOX and they refuse to do anything dealing with X-Men or Fantastic Four for Disney/ Marvel.

Yeah I think the Mutant ship has pretty much sailed for Marvel. We're just gonna have to live with more poorly done X-Men sagas. However adding Spidey to the Marvel-mix should more than compensate for that!

Now the question is which version of Spidey will they use? Seeing as how all the Marvel films have dealt with the Ultimate versions can we expect the same for Spidey? Meaning is it possible to see Miles Morales instead of Peter Parker. I think it would be cool, especially if you're going back to square one as a reboot.
