I was wanting to see this and not really paying any attention to critics and other peoples cause they were not comic book people.

SSoooo Now I really don't know what to do.

There were peoples that weren't so big on Ant-Man either but in Truth I found it equal to or better than Avengers#2 "Age of Ultron" and here I was wondering why though Ant-Man why Hope had a Janet Van Dyne hair doo.

Then the egg the credits were Dad gives Hope the New Wasp Suit.

That's good I like Evangeline Lily and I think she will make a good Wasp for up coming Movies.
