Now first off you are gonna think I started this to complain about the show Riverdale?

That is not actually true, I rather like it it is dramatic and well different that's for sure.

Okay, Ok I was a little confused when the show first started.

Starts off with school starting after Archie has had a summer job in Construction and has had an Summer Affair with one of the Teacher's Miss Grundy who is now not an old gray haired lady but a young hot Babe?

The Lodge's are moved back into town as Old man Lodge went to Jail for Embellishing and the wife's only job she can get as a waitress at Pop's who's now an old Black guy??

Speaking of that and a diverse town Principle Weatherbee is now a Black man too and Reggie Mott is an Asian dude.

Betty & Veronica are not both Archie crazy and after him, well Betty kinda is but ends up getting her heart crushed about Archie's affair with Miss Grundy and move towards Jughead who is not so much of a foodie as an investigative reporter along with Betty?

Oh Veronica is still an ex-Rich spoiled girl though.

Josie McCoy is a Black girl with a Black Girl band called....you got it..."The Pussycats" Who are Valerie Brown & Melody Valentine & are both black also.

Archie's Dad has a Construction Company and His Ex-Partner was Jughead's Dad who's now a Drunk trying to sober-up.

Dilton Doiley is still the same guy.

Moose is still Moose but not Blonde.

There has been a Murder in town of a Ex-Football Jock who got Betty's sister Pregnant.

Mrs Lodge has started an Affair with Archie's Dad.

Everyone's a suspect in the Murder?

Well Let's just say it is different than the Archie Comics Universe and it keep getting Extremely different.

I'm wondering whether there will be a Dark Witch Twist if Sabrina is introduce now too?

I guess we will see by how long it lasts whether people can accept this version of "The Archie Universe"?
