Thank you for that ringing endorsement, Drunken Dragon! I could not agree more with what you've said! I hope you do find the time to enter this challenge. I'd love to see the good things I know you could do with Jinky's lines.

Well, only half the month left but still plenty of time left to show your love of Jinky's work, get a chance to work with her art and maybe even win a neat prize!

Well, we have our first entry. It's from pijon...
