Hello HEROMORPH!

This Challenge I give to you!

I want to see your Best Time Displaced Hero! Will you create a Hero as if he were from another time, or will that hero introduce future ideas to the past, maybe a vision of the future version of this hero. Will it be a Steam Punk Ironman, Renaissance Night Crawler, A dark knight as an actual Knight?! Imagination is the ONLY limit!

You have until the End of May! Label your entry in some way with Out of Time

Edit: I am extending this to Villains as well!
