Sadly, my own muse has apparently left the building and gone on vacation. I've been drawing a blank here but after seeing the cool entries from Jinky, Sadman and DD as well as knowing DW also has something cool planned (AND thrown down the gauntlet!), well y'all got me a bit enthused now so I can't let some little thing like the lack of a good idea stop me!

I've started workin' on a little something. Hopefully I can get it done before I'm "out of time"
