Very sad news.

I wasn't online much yesterday but I'm such a huge fan of Mr. Ditko's work that an friend called me long distance just to inform me. Since I got online and started getting back into superhero art, I must've done at least 20 pieces involving Mr Ditko's characters! Why, it seems like just last month that I did an inspiration map devoted to the man.

He will surely be missed but not soon forgotten. He left a big imprint on the comic world and was a major inspiration to many great professionals working in the field now. 90 years is a good long life and Ditko gave so much to so many. Thanks Steve, for all the magic. RIP
