A poll is up for you all to decide what the next challenge will be.

Your choices are

Inappropriate superhero product endorsements.- this was originally Daruma's Idea. But basically you take a comic book character and put him/her in a commercial like image trying to sell you something. like Wolverine for Virginia Slims (You've come a long way, Bub.)?

Heroes out of time.- basically an elseworlds challenge. you take a comic book character and put them in a different time era and adjust the costume to fit. For example Batman as A knight of the round Table.

Amalgam.- I will give you 2 characters to combine into one.

Gender change- take a comic book character and make them the opposite sex.

Original character- make a manip of a character of your own design.

Who????????s your Daddy?- also know as offspring or second generation. What the kid of current superheroes would look like. Kind of like a if they mated.
