Looking for voice actors soon for a space opera series I want to create. It's not a paying gig. Applicants should send a voice sample with at least 3 accents, Posh English, Proper American Midwest English, and one of choice. Also looking for something along the lines of two specific accents/voices... something like Madge Sinclair (Sarabi from lion king) and Letitia Wright (Shuri from Black Panther). For now 8 lead roles (which includes the aforementioned 2) are available. The series will be cgi animate with an anime feel.

Lead roles with voice specs in parenthesis are as follows:

MAIN CAST

Obsidian Mask: male 30's (Posh James Bond)

Shadawar aka Shadow: (CAST)

Ai-Thoron: Female late 20's (Madge Sinclair African)

Lote' pron. Youtay: Female young adult (Latitia Wright African)

Aini: Female Early 20's (Sultry Posh English)

Sabrina Wildman: Female Early 30's (American English Midwestern)

Synthea: Female Early 20's(Midwestern English monotone)

Colonel Rendaza: male mid 40's (Posh Star Wars villain)

RECURRING ROLES

Black Mantis/Khar male mid 30's(menacing voice/calm collected)

Raven: Female mid 20's (Motherly yet Sexy)

Norjaguar: make mid 30's (Intelligent proper English, XMen Beast)

Reaver: make mid 40's (Dark, forbidding whispered)

Thunderbird: Make mid 30's(Deep voice Native American)

there may be other recurring roles later.
