Hello heromorph. I've been off the radar for about 2 years, after the passing DW I took a break he was very special friend even though I never met him in person, we had a friendship out of heromorph. I don't think I'll be posting anything soon cause ever since I moved to Philadelphia I have not been able to get me a more powerful PC. But hero morphle always be my training ground. Thanks Heromorph. Machobubba aka Daniel Maldonado.
