now, this is gonna sound funny...

im happy i lost....i knew i would, but i'm also happy. the judges have shown me that even what i think is my worst peices have a proverbial silver lining in at least a thing or two that someone will like...that and i just got to compete with one of my favorite artists and fellow manipper(not to mention good friend,)WINTERHAWK. congrats, buddy...you deserve it.

kudos to you, brother...
