Ok, here's the rules.

Same characters: Human Torch vs Sandman. The two are battling it out inside a building. The torch has to be in flames and the sandman using some part of his body in sandy form.

As I know you have a passion for Legionnaires I'm gonna make you draw something other than them.
LOL Also, moving away from the pin-up poses you will have to create an action scene with guys!

So...how's that?
