Jr, you're off the hook.

with a bit of cojoling, newcomers Styx and Cyanure have agreed to judge. unfortunately we could not find a replacement for BB, so we're stuck with him.

You both missed the obvious solution: you could have both been judges.

I'm just sayin'...

Just for clarification, Black Alchemy has graciously allowed adding or altering to the "refridgerator" in the base image. we should all thank him because my entry would probably have been reaaaally boring without it.

But what about us, the judges and fans? We need to see the base image, to. And I can't wait to find out what a "refridgerator" is. Is it anything like a refrigerator?
