I believe the original TWO MONTH time limit still applies. That puts the posting deadline in mid December. Something about being swallowed by the nothingness of it all...

No, I won't make you wait that long, but I've a few more features I'd like to tuck into the background. Week, maybe two from here. We'll see.

And I've half a mind to let you post a few days in advance of me, to get some well deserved and uninterrupted 'oos' and 'awwes' before my piece makes her entrance.

We'll see. Have'ta work that one out. Might not be fair in some way.

And my thanks to all the volunteer juges...and the other judges too. This one shouldn't be easy.

But again...

We'll see.
