I just wanted to get up to speed on everything (I've been a bit under the weather lately) and make sure I'm not working on any misconceptions.

BA and I are working to turn an image he picked (a woman standing in front of a refrigerator) into a comic book style drawing using the parameters he stated earlier in this thread. The only concession he made to the rules was to allow items to be added IN the refrig, as long as they were items common to someone's refrig. The rest of his original rules still stand.

judges are:

Styx

Cyanure

Winterhawk/Bikerbot ?

As to that, I completely respect and understand BBs "unbushwacking". I just hope it was nothing I or BA said that may have contributed to your desicision. Personally, I think it would be great fun for you to join in.

BA had never set a time limit to the challenge (for which I'm grateful, as I have not even started yet!), so there is no rush.

But if you're not jumping in, who is going to be the third judge, you or Winter?

BA - My quarenteen has recently been lifted, and I have had my computer privileges restored (by nurse ratchet), so I am ready to proceed.

If I am in error in any way, please let me know.

Barring any confusion, lets git'erdone!

Once again, BB, I do hope you reconsider a three-way duel. You guys are among the best here, and I think the outcome would be really cool.
