Well, I'm not finished, several things yet I'd like to scrub, but after 6 weeks, I've walked out to the end of my endurance on this project. Post or fade into the horizon at this point.

Still, this is my first entry into the 'I slaved over this for months' club, so go easy. Don't ask how many hours I spent on this project...I don't know any more.

I'll probably ace Jr on layout and composition with this, but he'll probably ace me on rendering quality.

Raws (of the girl. Background is spliced from too many corpses to count) and English rough translation of all the Chinese are available upon request.

N-Joy.
