This is the first challenge for the fan fiction section of Heromorph.
I am going to start this one off fairly easy and not put many guidelines on it.

Make the story an Origin short story, using any character you want. If you are using an existing character re-tell the original in a unique way (kind of like a Ultimate version). The story can be adult or regular. The Due date will be Jan 31st/2005.

After the stories are up, a poll will decide the winner of the challenge. The Prize will be a custom avatar and a custom rank.

Have fun
