I cast my vote for .....JR

this is why.

1( Clarity and detail are great though I do not understand the purpose of the batman, superman zippers, the PG belt buckle, thought the panties are a nice touch ( part of the orginal image i take?) The only thing I see is maybe smooth or soften the edge of the cape.

as for the other picture. I have to agree with brick I would like to see how much went into it. the whole "fuzzy" look did not match the clothing style of the greeks? in the background. and all of the asian text? what does that have to do with the over all image? the outfit and clothing strune about look like they were done with a filter or brush tip that simulates fur, the look out of focus and like they were just drawn on at the last minute.
