There could be other options, maybe teams from HM vs teams from C2F?

No offense to you C2-effers... but we can't team up HM-ers and C2f-ers... This is really going out on a limb and might crawl under someone's skin... but Team HW would Slaughter Team C2F if we were to team up like that. Oh, and I know that wasn't meant to be an all HM team up... I know you meant individual teams... but still HM ROCKS!!!! We would slap down... oh no... I am starting to get ornery.... I will stop!

I do like Mike's ideas though... so, we gonna do this or what...

And who is going to decide who does who and what the theme is and yadda.... yadda... yadda....

OH, and also, we can't put this up to a group (poll) vote... it seems in the last few polls that there have been people simply slaughtering others... almost as if the poll was fixed... regardless... we can't let this happen on a big competition like this... We will need a group of HM judges and C2F judges to decide the winners... I know that this is a pain in the a$$ but it is the only way to judge it fairly.
