If it aint broke don't fix it.

I think the team up worked great last year, I really enjoyed it. The only problem is that some people didn't finish on time. The solution to this problem is not to let the late posters join in this time. If you didn't make the deadline your out, simple as that.

Last time the theme for the pictures was teamwork and partnership, this time have the theme Rivalry and/or combat.

I dueled a buddy and he lost. I know his feelings got hurt, though he got over it quick, I'm sure. But still it stung. It was also hard becuase mutual friends had to do the judging.

And BA, I didn't get my feelings hurt, I had fun. I wanted to win but I didn't, O well. It is always more about the challenge then the results. I would did it again, or are ya scared for a rematch

It was funny watching the guys Judge though.

I though BB and Jr were going to cry, bunch of wussy's
