Too complex methinks. I'm handing over the duties to B, but I'm still going to put in my everlasting 20p.

I think we should do the simple thing and do a team-up again. We could ban those that failed to meet the deadline, but I worry that we might not have enough people then. Also I'm a big fan of second chances.

So it makes sense then to set a deadline. I'm going to say March 1st. That gives us plenty of time to get everything settled.

Entrants must register interest by January 15th.

The theme will be rivalry.

To ensure that people are taking part, we (the guys in charge) will ask for progress pictures on February 15th.

As for the people that are in both camps. If you feel strongly in one or the other then state that, if you feel you're really mixed then say that, and we'll use you to even out the numbers.

That sound alright to everyone?
