Well, I was working on my duel with Dan, then I switched to a group project that I am involved in. So since I have 2 things I have to do, I put them both to the side and quickly did a Wonder woman picture. This was really fast, I only spent about 1 hour on it, but I think it looks cartoony to me, so it fits in with what you boys were doing, now. When is BA actually going to post his so the real Duel can End. Darn BA and his Breaks.
