After spending a while looking at the links that were posted in the models thread. i found this picture
i had an idea.(yes, i was surprised too) we could have a heromorph collaboration myself and five others artists (six if someone wants to do a background) each pick one girl and manip her in to any hero you want. put them all together for one great picture. no rules (dc, marvel, gender change, original, alternate costume, whatever) i would like to use the model third from the left.
if anyone is interested just reply to this post and pick the model that you would like to manip.
the base picture is in the model selection sub-gallery in the adult section.
