This is going to be good! Lots and lots of great manips.

Oh, and if anyone is wondering why I didn't sign up: Well, at first I was so busy sucking on my toes to see the post.

Then I got exited and almost singed up; but I realized that doing so would mean that I would actually have to do something... like finish a manip, which would seriously interfere with my favorite hobby: doing absolutely nothing.

But I will be on the sidelines with my pom-poms! Go team go!
