is every one "ok" with an R rated project and the nov 30 deadline.

if not speak up.

just so everyone knows:

here is the plan for how to finish.

once you finish your model you can e-mail me your finished picture (merge all of your visble layers of the work you did seperate from the base-to keep the size down) and send me the .psd file via e-mail. (i have winzip so you can .zip to save space as well) once i get it them i just have to copy your one layer and paste it to the master copy. once finished i can send each of you guys a copy of the master .psd file

My e-mail address is winterhawk2@shaw.ca also to make sure that no one is doing the same character we should probably e-mail each other to let us know what the other is doing and that way it will still be a surprise for everyone else and we wont end up all doing 1 or 2 heroes six times.

If anyone has a better idea let me know.

we still have a spot open for a background artist the picture size is 1608x1066 if anyone is interested.
