OK, then... even if you are coloring someone else's image I still don't think that you should post it while the original piece is on the main page. There is something about seeing the same image over and over again when I log in that really irritates me. I think that we need a "professional" courtesy to not double post... easy as that. You like something... color it... then post it after the original is gone.

And as for Alex... if he gets pissed and leaves, let him... he will be back after he gets better... but posting 3 of his images doesn't help. Putting Lipstick on a pig doesn't change the fact that it is still a pig. Except for maybe BA... then it becomes his date.
