You guys sure obfuscate things around here. the other entries where let in because BB asked and I figured what the hey. There are no hard rules, as brick keeps telling me this is like the Wild West and the moderators are the sheriff's.

Well folks it is all over - Divine Monkey has won with his amazing Roger Rabbit makeover. Congrats! Poo-slinger

On I side note: I am not going to be doing the monthly challenges anymore. Brick has given you all the March challenge after that you are on your own. Feel free to come up with your own challenges, team-ups, theme days, etc.. Have fun with it. If the you can all come up with a big event and need a prize, just ask one of the moderators if you can award avatars and/or custom ranks as prizes (most likely we will even agree)

Have fun
