Winterhawk, you sure are shameless!

I wonder, is there any thread in the forum where you haven't begged people to vote for you?

And as for the blue monkey's... they're not there any more. I think they were eaten by the alligator that lives under the bathtub. You know, the one that forced you to jump in and out of the tub, or it would catch you leggs and pull you under. And eat you. Man, I hated that old thing.

Wait a minute.. an Alligator.. in sweden? Damn you sis, you tricked me again, didn't you?
