yup, that would be me, new here, and this being my first post, so, as it goes.....

I use Lost for a combination of many reasons...

short for Lostboy or Lostboy Breez as i first used when on the computer. lostboy for 2 reasons, I refuse to grow up and my friends have called me the long haired, tattooed , peirced epitome of Peter Pan, so I considered my self one of the lostboys..... also Lostboy because I am a big vampire fan and the vamp movie Lostboys, and therefore the name tied the 2 together, since Lostboy was usually taken I had to use variations.

then one day I found a wonderful comic that told the tale of Peter Pan and the Lostboys and the reason they didnt age was because they were vampires (PERFECT, IMHO)

it was called The Lost, shorter and sounded better to me, also was less used on the net, and Lost describes the way my mind wanders alot and lost in thought or lost in my own world.. also my strange sense of humor sometimes (Lost on others, hehe), i could go on but that mostly sums it up there.

so thats me..
