EEEchhh....

I'll leave "The slipping part two" to You and Jr.. It could be funny... Probably not as funny as a good fart manip, I mean thats _classy_ bathroom humor!
(MsVee I promise I'll do the next one!)

I hereby bump this thread cuz' its the last "official" Challenge.

Its not the last challenge by any means. We All look forward to (and look backwards to) the day's when the regular members concocted these challenges, group projects, crossovers and whatever would germinate... just for the fun of it.

obviously those of you who contribute regularly (even those gnomes like me who manage a post now and again) have a greater impact on the site than any one (or five) moderators... and that would be the whole point.

Thank you all _very much_ for keeping it fun!

P.S. Whatcha got for posters? (just give me your best reject ideas... I wouldnt dream of stealing your real one.. Bwaahahaha!!!).
