To Bikerbot and Winterhawk,

Your ideas for the April Challenge are most concise, and well thought-out . Therefore I am pleased to formally announce that the two of you are forever banned from any and all Challenges for the length of your membership here at Heromorph. In light of this new status, and the fact that you did not submit any artwork, makes you the clear winners of this month's challenge. Congratulations! HOWEVER, the trout that appears in the art that you did not submit, disqualifies you from the challenge.

Sorry. Better luck next time.

buncha geeks.
