I watched a fan film that had spider man doing kiddy shows and wonder woman as a prostitute. I think Batman was a porn addict.

Superman had a 18 year old girlfriend and acted like a stuck up A-hole.

Was funny as hell.

Even though they are current it would be cool to see the take of where they would end up once they started getting old and started feeling the effects of fighting ever single day.

If you've ever read about how hard it is on pro football players after 10 years of getting your head and legs smashed you might get the idea.

Now I have to go unwad my panties.
