Technically none of these pics have been stolen. When you upload to a free website you are giving the pic away.

Anyway I'm willing to bet that almost every pic at HM has been 'stolen' at least once. Viewers save the files to disk and then when all alone late at night look at them in order to... compare artistic merits.

As for being a 'pro' when appearing at Wizard Universe... hmmm... when do I get paid?

Max - If you think I'm sick consider this: I MAKE the art, I don't USE it.
