Thanks for that pic. I've been looking for one. But I'm not sure I like it now, it may grow on me as I watch the movie. I agree with those of yall who have said that the emblem is too small. I like it big and bold - the way Alex Ross tended to draw it. The 'Red' in the costume is too dark for my tastes. It adds a 'darker' tone to a character that really shouldn't be.
