Uhm... I realize it must be hard to make brightly colored tights look cool, but man... he looks like a dork.

(And no, making the red a tad darker than in the comics isn't enough to make it look cool.)

The villains would take one look at him, and laugh their asses off. At least 'til he beat the snot out of them. Is that what he's going for? Make them drop their guard, by looking dorky?
