This is the second challenge for the fan fiction section of Heromorph.
I am going to start this one off fairly easy and not put many guidelines on it.

Make the story an hollywood style action story, using any character you want. Lots of fights, explosions, & excitement. The story can be adult or regular. The Due date will be July 31st/2005.

After the stories are up, a poll will decide the winner of the challenge. The Prize will be a custom avatar and a custom rank. Second place will recieve their choice of a rank or avatar.

All prizes in this challenge are transferable to a member of your choosing, if you win and already have an avatar and/or rank.

Have fun
