ya know women are actually good for a lot more than those reasons. Granted, sex, cleaning, raising the kids, and if your lucky your woman is bisexual...i haven't been so lucky, the mere mention of the word "threesome" and the wife spazzes. I used to date the daughter of our cities POLICE CHIEF so no matter how much crap I got into..... the case was thrown out and there was no record of it....ah, those were the days....not that I really got into anything too bad...most traffic violations. but lesbians....what good are they if they don't want you to join, sure is nice to watch, better to join.
