Boy... that is a lot of writing to tell me you liked the movie... but you know how that goes... one mans trash is another mans treasure... the tables might flip from person to person... so don't get your panties in a wad is someone says "it sucked" after they see it.

Oh and I am jealous that you saw an advanced screening... I am looking forward to this movie.

and I never got to any spoiler because I just don't read that much stuff at one time.
