Hey every one,
well hot on the heels of the last collaboration is this proposal for a sequel.
QuantumFX has given us 2 pictures.

and

Picture #2 "the hot babes"

Now me and Dark Knight have thought of the group challenge.
here are the guide lines.

We need 8 artists in total. Me and Dark Knight are willing, so we only need 6 more.

Every one should pick a model. (I have taken the last one on the right on the pool picture, DK has taken the second from the left in the pool picture)

We will be working in 2 teams at the same time following these simple rules. the characters need to be women from any x-men series of comic books. If you want to be a part of the action reply to this post with your model choice and e-mail address (so we can keep in contact) this is a first come first serve basis so join now if you want to be a part. I would like someone to be the team captain of the second picture and organize and update their team members. if you want the job then say something in your response to this post. If no one objects, I will act as team captain of the pool picture team and project leader for both pictures. I would like both teams to have the same due date and post both of their finished pictures at the same time. but the due date will be decided as a group, because some people move a little slower than others. Input is welcome.
