Hi guys.

So far i have received bricks and Angelophiles manips.

They are both very good.

Here is a couple questions for all of you here at team 2.

Do you want a background? If you do what kind?(real landscape, city scape, abstract, comic book cover)

Do you all want to have your names or logos on the picture? does anyone have any final design points that they would like to see? any other idea's?

OK boys, this is the fun part. it is time to figure out how you all would like to put this picture together. talk as a team and let me know.

Please, i would like feed back from everyone on the team aswell as anyone anticipating the final result.
