What do you guys want to do to finish it up.

I personally like having all of our logo's on the picture, do you guys like that idea? Do you guys want to have the pool picture to us the background that it came with our would you all like something else.

Did you want to emulate a comic book cover? what ideas do you all have or would like to see in the finished product? Should we have anything connecting our picture to team 2's picture?

Please i would like feed back for every member of team 1 aswell as anyone anticipating this project?
